

Carol answered her phone to hear someone impersonating a law enforcement officer alleging that she'd failed to appear for a recent jury summons.

The officer threatened that a warrant had been issued for her arrest, but they could clear the warrant if a fine was paid. They pressured her to stay on the phone and to make an immediate payment of $5,000 but to keep the matter confidential due to a court suppression order.

But Carol had Allstate® Identity Protection. She reached out and it was determined she had been scammed.

Our restoration specialists helped her submit all documents so she could be reimbursed for her scam-related losses* and get back to enjoying her mornings, and her life, worry-free.

With scams and identity threats becoming more sophisticated in scope, scale and psychology, Carol's story could've happened to anyone.

get identity and scam protection that keeps up with real life

You don't have to be a security expert to get expert identity and scam protection.

With AI and other tools making scams, fraud and identity theft more convincing and common, safeguarding your data can feel overwhelming — and expensive when trying to piece together protection on your own. That's why Allstate Identity Protection brings multiple solutions together in one plan to give you greater peace of mind.

You could save over $100 a month* with Pro+ Cyber protection instead of piecemeal identity and scam tool subscriptions.

Enroll in our Pro+ Cyber plan today to get:
